Rimage 5300N Disc Publisher
The Rimage 5300N disc publisher gives you professional quality direct-to-disc printing and burning in one easy-to-use publisher. With the latest in robotics, print, and image durability, the Rimage producers are ideal for your publishing needs! Everest 600 print technology gives your discs durable, photo-quality images that will not smudge or scratch!

The 5300N comes with an embedded control center computer with pre-installed, pre-configured software. This minimizes the setup time and workspace footprint. Use the 5300N as a network appliance. It connects to your network using a single Ethernet cable and you can send jobs from any computer to the publisher!

Software suite Release 7.4 is included with the 5300N. Software includes a suite of integrated applications that help you manage, create, and print discs from all computers across your network. The infrastructure software included in 7.4 can also help manage workflow throughput and image processing.
